

Duties Fact Sheet

First Home Owner Rate of Duty

Sections 141 – 146 of the Duties Act 2008

As at 1 July 2008

Introduction

A person who qualifies for a First Home Owner Grant, or a person who would qualify for a First Home Owner Grant had consideration been paid, or is an Indian Ocean Territory resident, may be entitled to a first home owner rate ('FHOR') of transfer duty on the transfer, or agreement to transfer (i.e. the contract for sale) in respect of the acquisition of the home or vacant land.

Note: A person who is not entitled to the FHOR due to the value of the home or vacant land exceeding the specified thresholds (as detailed below) may be eligible for the residential concessional rate ('residential rate') of transfer duty. For further information on the residential rate, please refer to the Duties Fact Sheet – Transfer of Residential Property available at www.osr.wa.gov.au

Eligibility for the FHOR of duty

Eligibility is aligned with the requirements under the First Home Owner Grant Act 2000 ('First Home Owner Grant Act').

A transfer or an agreement to transfer a home or vacant land upon which a new home has been or will be built, may qualify for the FHOR of duty where:

- the purchaser/s or transferee/s is/are eligible for a First Home Owner Grant; or
- the purchaser/s or transferee/s become/s a person to whom a First Home Owner Grant would be, or would have been, payable in relation to the property if consideration had been given for the transfer of the property or they are residents of the Indian Ocean Territories; and
- the unencumbered value of the land, or the land and home to which the First Home Owner Grant relates, does not exceed the thresholds outlined below.

Further information as to eligibility for a First Home Owner Grant can be found in the First Home Owner Grant Fact Sheet available from the Office of State Revenue website at www.osr.wa.gov.au

Thresholds and eligibility

Home

- To be eligible for the FHOR of duty, the unencumbered value of the home must not exceed $600,000.
- Where the dutiable value of the home does not exceed $500,000, no duty is payable.
- Where the dutiable value of the home exceeds $500,000 but does not exceed $600,000, duty is payable at a rate of $22.51 for every $100 and any fractional part of $100 by which the dutiable value exceeds $500,000.

Vacant Land

- To be eligible for the FHOR of duty, the unencumbered value of the vacant land must not exceed $400,000.
- Where the dutiable value of the land does not exceed $300,000, no duty is payable.
- Where the dutiable value of the land exceeds $300,000 but does not exceed $400,000, duty is payable at a rate of $13.01 for every $100 and any fractional part of $100 by which the dutiable value exceeds $300,000.

Note: The threshold limits apply to the value of the home or vacant land, which is being transferred, and not to the value of the person's interest in the property that is being transferred.

Application for the FHOR of duty or a refund of duty

Application for the FHOR of duty must be made in the approved form. A person who applies for an assessment at the FHOR of duty will be subject to the requirements, eligibility criteria and obligations set out in the First Home Owner Grant Act.

How to apply for the FHOR of duty if you are eligible for the First Home Owner Grant

1. Lodge an application for the First Home Owner Grant with an approved financial institution or the Office of State Revenue.
2. If you are eligible for the First Home Owner Grant, the Office of State Revenue will send a letter of approval for the grant, together with an application form – First Home Owner Rate of Duty – For Purchased Property or Gifted Vacant Land. The application form will be sent in all instances except where the unencumbered value of an established home exceeds $600,000. The application form should only be submitted where the home or vacant land is within the dutiable value thresholds.
3. Submit the transaction record (e.g. Contract for Sale or Transfer of Land) together with a fully completed and signed application form to your settlement agent (where applicable) or the Office of State Revenue if you are conducting your own settlement.

Please note that where the transaction has been previously charged with duty at the residential rate or general rate of duty, the application form and the original duty endorsed transaction record must be lodged at the Office of State Revenue for reassessment of the transaction at the FHOR of duty and a refund of any overpaid duty will be made accordingly.

How to apply for the FHOR of duty if you are NOT eligible for the First Home Owner Grant because the home was received as a gift, for no consideration or you are a resident of the Indian Ocean Territories

1. Submit the transaction record (e.g. Contract for Sale or Transfer of Land) for assessment of duty together with a fully completed and signed application form – First Home Owner Rate of Duty For A Gifted Home or where applicable, First Home Owner Rate – Indian Ocean Territories to the Office of State Revenue.
2. Attach a completed Duties Valuation Form (available at www.osr.wa.gov.au), or alternatively, if the value of the property is less than $400,000, a sworn valuation that has been made less than three (3) months from the date of the transaction.

3. If you are eligible for the FHOR of duty, the Office of State Revenue will assess duty accordingly.
4. If it is determined that you are not eligible for the FHOR of duty, upon application the residential rate of duty may apply to the transaction. The Office of State Revenue will advise you in writing of the reasons for that determination and request a residential rate application form to be completed.

Please note, that where the transaction has previously been assessed for duty at the residential rate or general rate of duty, the application form and the original duty endorsed transaction record must be lodged at the Office of State Revenue for reassessment of the transaction at the FHOR of duty. A refund of any overpaid duty will be made accordingly.

Time limit to make an application for reassessment

There may be circumstances where at the time you are required to lodge the transaction record, you will not be in a position to lodge an application for the FHOR of duty. In such circumstances the transaction record will initially be assessed, upon application, at the residential concessional rate or at the general rate of transfer duty if applicable.

An application for the FHOR of duty must be made within the later of:

- 12 months after completion date of the transaction the subject of the application; or
- three (3) months after payment of the First Home Owner Grant.

The completion date is:

- in the case of a transaction for a home – the date when the purchaser becomes entitled to possession of the home; or
- in the case of a transaction for vacant land upon which a home is to be built – the date when the home is ready for occupation.
- in the case of a transaction for vacant land upon which a home is to be built by an owner builder – the date when the home is ready for occupation.

Should an application not be made within the time stated, a person will not be entitled to apply for the FHOR of duty.

When an application form for the FHOR of duty is lodged and has been approved, the transaction will be reassessed at that rate of duty. A refund of any overpaid duty will be made accordingly.

Please note that in these circumstances, the application form must be lodged together with the original duty endorsed transaction record (e.g. Contract of Sale, Offer and Acceptance).

Shared Equity Arrangements with the Department of Housing

A shared equity home owner can also qualify for the FHOR of duty when purchasing either some or all of the interest in their home with or from the Department of Housing.

A further transfer of an interest in shared equity homes may also qualify for the FHOR of duty.

For more detailed information on shared equity contracts and the FHOR of duty, please refer to Commissioner's Practice DA15 available at www.osr.wa.gov.au

Obligation to notify the Commissioner of State Revenue

An assessment at the FHOR of duty will be subject to the transferee meeting the eligibility criteria and conditions for the First Home Owner Grant, whether or not the transferee actually receives a First Home Owner Grant.

For example, if the residence requirement is not met, written notification of that fact must be made to the Commissioner within 30 days of the expiration of the residency requirement, or on the date it becomes apparent that the residency requirement can not be fulfilled, whichever is the earlier.

Furthermore, if for any reason a person is required to repay a First Home Owner Grant, then a transaction that has been assessed at the FHOR will be reassessed at the appropriate rate of duty.

Penalty

If an application contains false or misleading information, the person or persons commit an offence under the Taxation Administration Act 2003 for which the maximum penalty is $20,000 plus three times the amount of tax that was or might have been avoided.
